HISTORY

The last of a dying breed, Davis' is a true Eastport neighborhood pub. Built in the 1920's by lifelong resident George Davis, the building was originally opened as a general store. In the 1940's it was transformed into Davis' Tavern, which served as a hideaway for the numerous watermen who resided throughout the surrounding working-class neighborhood.

While Eastport as a whole has changed significantly over the past several decades, we are proud to say Davis' Pub has remained virtually the same, catering to faithful customers from all walks of life near and far!
